

PURPOSE

The International Church of Copenhagen is a Christian congregation which serves the English-speaking community in the Copenhagen area. It seeks to provide a full program of Christian ministry and activities to members of the congregation without regard to nationality, race, gender, orientation, or denominational affiliation.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

This congregation confesses the Triune God (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit). It affirms that Jesus, the Christ, is Lord and savior, and that Jesus is the Word of God incarnate. It confesses that the canonical Scriptures (the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament) are the inspired written Word of God, and accepts the Apostles' Creed, the Nicene Creed and the Athanasian Creed as true declarations of the faith of this congregation. The congregation also recognizes the Augsburg Confession and Martin Luther's Small Catechism as true witnesses to the Gospel.'

OUR MINISTRY

At the heart of ICC is the great commission of Jesus that calls us to participate in God's loving work in the world. We seek to proclaim the good news in word and deed, teach and baptize in the name of the Triune God, and make disciples of all nations.

At ICC, we experience the reality of new life in faith, and we share that life with all of God's children. We offer our time, talent and gifts in order to live faithfully, and grow in our discipleship. As we journey through this life, sharing our gifts with one another, like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we get to experience the presence of Christ in our midst.

We profess the age-old creeds of the Christian faith, which affirm our belief in the Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We receive God's Word for us through Holy Scripture, and the Sacraments of Holy Baptism and the Holy Communion.

We express our faith through regular worship in God's Word for us through Holy Scripture, and the Sacraments of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion.

As Christians, we gather in God's house to listen to God's Word for us in scripture, and respond with praise and thanksgiving. We seek closeness to God through participation in the Sacraments of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion. We share our faith with the world through daily prayer, proclamation of the Gospel, service to others, and by working for peace and justice in all the Earth.

Our hearts burn with joy, fueled by our shared experience of the God who makes all things new.
